
Farm Site Plan

Make an overview map of all your property and any other property to which the flock has access. Include field boundaries, field number, wetlands, woodlots, acreage and any other information you think is important.

Sketch an enlarged map of each farmstead site. Include the following information on the sketch: house, farm buildings, location and types of wells, manure piles, deadstock compost or burial sites, septic systems and any other information you think is important.